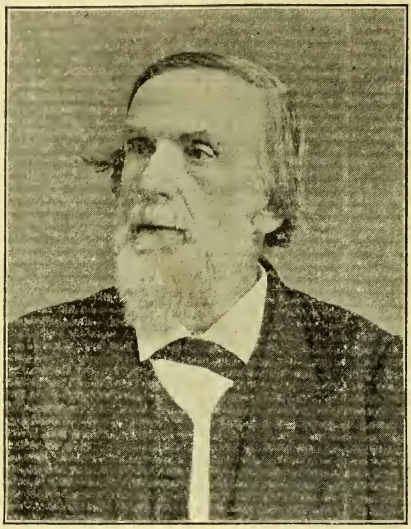
REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

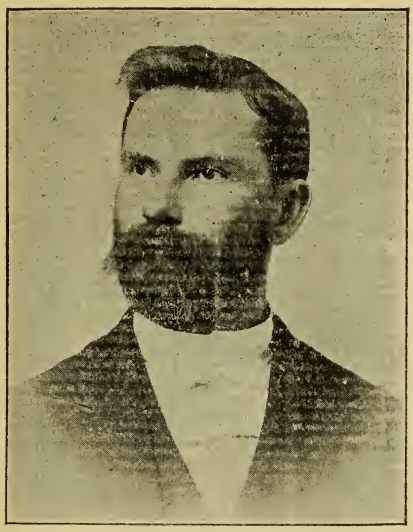


J. H. CARLISLE, LL. D.,
PRESIDENT WOFFORD COLLEGE.

Report No. 1.

While none in this day would deny that every one should be educated, yet what should be the method and character of that education is of vital importance to every Christian. We are thankful to be able to record that our Church has not been slow to apprehend and distinctively define her proper relation to education. While the State looks too extremely to the political economy side of the question, the Church under the inspiration of a consecrated purpose, unnoticed and unaided by legislative appropriations, is doing the work of thorough education, and is making her schools and colleges represent and supply the best provisions for mental training and for sound spiritual development. She plants the work of mental and religious training upon the bed-rock truth that Jesus Christ has been made unto us all wisdom, and that in him are hid all the treasures of wisdom.

Under Divine Providence the Church has come to occupy not only a different standpoint on this subject from that of the State, but a far more comprehensive one. She deals with education as a great life problem and proposes to give back to the world men who will impart this uplifting life to their fellows; so that when the work is done, the worker may experience the paradox, the greater the sacrifice the greater the conquest, a paradox which had its sublimest exemplification in the life of the Master and its sublimest utterance in the words: "He that loseth his life shall find it."



J. A. RICE, D. D.
PRESIDENT COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

In a word we stand for the perfect development of all the powers of man; hence a true definition of the Church includes the school-room as well as the sanctuary.

Your Board had before it a communication from the General Board of Education declaring its aims and purposes. In accord with certain recommendations of the said Board, we nominate Rev. C. B. Smith, as Conference Secretary and Treasurer of Education; and we ask the Board of Finance to apportion to the various charges $440.00, which amount has been assessed upon this Conference by the General Board.

Wofford College.

We are glad to report that the College has had the most flattering opening in its history. The present body of students are maintaining the high standard of Christian conduct which has always characterized Wofford boys. We ask that $4,000.00 be assessed upon the Conference to help meet the current expenses of the College.

Columbia Female College.

The President reports that they have a good body of students. We call upon our Church to give this College their patronage. We can no more afford to leave the education of our girls to the State than we can to leave that of our boys.

Fitting Schools.

Both Wofford Fitting School and Carlisle Fitting School are doing a great and much needed work.

We recommend that the Trustees of the Cokesbury Conference School dispose of the property and invest the funds so that the income may be used as originally intended.

We ask that $700.00 be raised for Paine and Lane Institutes, and that the Board of Finance arrange for its collection.

We nominate Rev. M. Dargan to serve on the Examining Committee of the second year in place of Rev. John Owen.

We ask the Bishop to make the following appointments:

Dr. S. Lander, President of Williamston Female College.

Dr. J. A. Rice, President of Columbia Female College.

Dr. George W. Walker, President of the Paine Institute.

Rev. C. B. Smith, Professor and Agent of Wofford College.

Rev. L. F. Beaty, Assistant Editor of Sunday School Literature.

Respectfully submitted,

D. R. DUNCAN, President,
PIERCE F. KILGO, Secretary.

REPORTS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Report No. 1.

Your Committee is profoundly impressed with the delicacy and importance of the religious training of our children. We recognize the fact that the Sunday School is only second to the pulpit, the Sunday School teacher only second to the preacher of the gospel. And we stand with bated breath as we realize that we are sowing here in virgin soil; that we are making first impressions ever the most lasting; that we are giving an impetus to immortal spirits that will never lose its force throughout the countless years of God.

We have given earnest, diligent, conscientious consideration to the interests committed to us. We rejoice in the work already done. But we feel that we are very far from being as active and intelligently aggressive in this work as we should be. We have determined that the President and Secretary of our Board shall prepare and send out to our Sunday School workers circular letters, leaflets, &c., calling attention to certain phases of truth in the current lessons, as well as to particular duties that should be laid upon the consciences of our youth.

We recommend that a Sunday School Conference and Normal Institute be held in each Presiding Elder's District, for which a basis of representation shall be fixed and a program prepared by a Committee appointed by the President of this Board; and that the Presiding Elders are requested to designate men, one in each District, who shall act with this General Committee in making all needful arrangements for these meetings.

We note with pleasure and gratitude the manifest improvement of our Sunday School literature under the able and progressive men who have charge of this department. We especially commend the Children's Day Program as an excellent and inspiring piece of work. We would be glad if our Editors would furnish us with song leaflets for use in our schools. We assure them of our sympathy and readiness to co-operate with them in every movement for the upbuilding of the great cause committed jointly to our hands.

D. D. DANTZLER, President.
J. L. STOKES, Secretary.

PROF. H. N. SNYDER,
PRESIDENT SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Report No. 2.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We are delighted to observe that the Epworth League movement is no longer an experiment in our Conferences. The Second Annual Conference of the Leagues of the State held in Columbia last summer was a most gratifying success. While the number of Leagues reported is not large, there are indications of their increasing hold upon our people wherever they have been faithfully operated. We are convinced of the entire practicability of League work—with needful modifications of the prescribed plan to suit peculiar circumstances—in every charge in our Conference. We urge our preachers to make earnest efforts to organize and operate a League in each of our congregations. We cordially commend the League organ, the Epworth Era, under the able and racy editorship of Rev. Dr. Steel, to the patronage of our youth

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

The greatest auxiliary of the pulpit is the Christian press. The world will always be debtor to Faust and Gutenberg, who, through their inventive genius, have projected a force that God is using to save the world. Here sanctified learning finds its greatest opportunity of reproducing itself and thus multiplying and perpetuating its power. John Wesley's genius for subsidizing everything that could contribute to the propagation of the Gospel of the Son of God, is nowhere more manifestly seen than in his employment of the printing press in the prosecution of his great work.

One of the most important works committed to the Church of God to-day is the circulation of religious literature among the masses of the people. No better work can engage the consecrated energy of preacher or layman than that of bringing the human mind and heart into touch with sanctified knowledge.

It is the conviction of your Board that the time has come when the Conference should take suitable action looking to the supply of our people with wholesome religious literature.

Acting upon this conviction we have sought information of our Publishing House at Nashville as to terms, &c., and have put ourselves in communication with the Rev. T. J. Gattis, an experienced and successful colporter of the Western North Carolina Conference.

After continued correspondence and personal interviews with him we find that he can serve this Conference as General Colporter in connection with the two North Carolina Conferences. In this service he can visit our ten District Conferences and other important centres, and offer the same terms to our preachers and people as are offered by our Publishing House at Nashville.

We therefore recommend that Rev. T. J. Gattis be appointed Conference Colporter for the ensuing year.

We also offer the following:

Resolved, 1. That our preachers be and they are hereby urged to give Bro. Gattis their hearty support by inviting him to their pulpits and homes and in every other possible way to assist him in creating a sentiment favorable to this important work.

2. That our preachers be urged to send their orders for books and periodicals to Bro. Gattis at Durham, N. C., where the same terms as to discounts and time of payment of accounts will be accorded as are given by the Publishing House at Nashville, thus saving time and from 50 to over 100 per cent in express charges.

H. B BROWNE, Chairman.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee is gratified with the report of the safe and prosperous condition of our Publishing House. We recommend greater and more united effort on the part of the Church to make this enterprise more powerful as an educating medium, for out of this must come much of our future light and life. Such results as are reported in the financial exhibit of the Book Agents are especially encouraging when we remember the stringency of the times through which we have just passed; and instead of relaxing, it should lead us to double our energies. Let us as teachers of the people endeavor to place our best books and periodicals within the reach of all classes of our people. We must labor unitedly for the best financial welfare of our Publishing House, in order to get out of it the best intellectual and spiritual results.

The Christian Advocate was never more ably edited than at present, and, as a connectional organ, it is indispensable. It certainly fills its mission, and represents the real thought and demand of our great connectional life. We believe it should be read by every pastor and representative layman of the Church.

The Methodist Review is now self-supporting, and promises not only to fulfill its purpose in the Church, but also to be a source of financial profit to the House

There has been some gain in the circulation of the Sunday School periodicals, and we recommend them as in every way worthy of the support and study of all our people.

Rev. W. D. Kirkland, D. D., the editor, and Rev. L. F. Beaty, his assistant, are representing their own Conference nobly, and are in every way worthy of the best support our Church in general can give them. We insist that the best way to run out any publication, claiming to be union —and therefore passive—is to help our people to a thorough knowledge of our own Sunday School literature. If we would mould Methodist life and character this must be done. Conviction is the product of training; and if we would rear our children to be Methodists, we must feed their minds on that which will create in them Methodist sentiment and devotion. Not only is the Sunday School literature necessary to this end, but the Epworth Era, ably edited by Rev. S. A. Steele, D. D., and published by the House, in the interest of our young people, should be extensively circulated and read. It has six thousand paid subscriptions, but this is not sufficient to make it a source of revenue. We think it worthy of our confidence and support, as a great moral and religious force.

We cordially commend to our people The World for Christ, a missionary paper published monthly by the House, at ten cents (10c) a year. It should be put into every home by our preachers. The Methodist Review, of Missions, also at one dollar ($1.00) a year, is filled with much helpful information concerning our interests in the missionary fields, and should be read by our people generally.

The Southern Christian Advocate is the paper for Methodists in South Carolina. Your Committee is assured that our duty, as a Church, demands that there shall be stronger efforts made to extend the circulation of our Conference organ. We can be indifferent to this high trust, and allow others, less worthy, to displace the paper of our own making, but the result will manifestly be disastrous. The Advocate is properly regarded as one of the institutions of the Church, which we are in honor bound to support; and it is gratifying that so many of our people appreciate this. Your Committee believes that the incoming Conference year should witness an active canvass for the paper by all our preaehers; and we urge that each charge increase its patronage not less than twenty-five per cent. early in the year Rev. John O. Willson, the editor, deserves the highest praise for the yeoman service he has been able to do upon the paper. We bespeak for him the cordial support and sympathy of all our preachers and people.

With the above publications at our command, and an anxious hungering multitude around us, let us, as a Conference, use them to the glory of God and the salvation of men

ANDREW C. DIBBLE, Chairman.
W. A. BETTS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on Bible Cause beg leave to report that as a Conference we cannot afford to withdraw aught of the support we have heretofore given to the American Bible Society, but on the other hand are constrained to a fuller and heartier sympathy with its work.

Our Foreign Missionaries are supplied by this Society with the Holy Scriptures translated and printed in the language of the people they serve. Wherever an American Missionary goes the Society meets him with this valuable aid.

The thousands of immigrants landing every year upon our shores are met by the Agents of this Society with the Bible in their own tongues, thus opening the way to their becoming Protestant Christians, and good American citizens.

The Society is doing a large and constant benevolent work, in supplying Orphan Asylums, Hospitals, Military Camps, and in short all who are destitute and will receive it, with the Word of God.

It has undertaken a work of no less magnitude than the supplying at half price every child in our land that can read and does not already own a copy of the Scriptures with this inestimable treasure.

For these and other reasons we urge all the preachers faithfully to carry out the requirement of the Discipline, and present the claims of the Bible Society to all their congregations during the coming year and forward their contributions to Rev. T. H. Law, D. D., District Superintendent, at Spartanburg.

We are glad to report an increased interest in this matter during the past year. Contributions have gone up from 85 charges, amounting to more than $250.00, besides what has been given through local Societies.

We recommend that these Local or Auxiliary Societies be organized wherever practicable, and that especial attention be given to supplying all our Sunday Schools with Bibles, and that Superintendents and teachers be urged to use these in their classes, laying aside all lesson helps, except in the study and preparation of the lesson.

Signed in behalf of the Commiitee.

A. J. STAFFORD, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE EPWORTH ORPHANAGE.

The South Carolina Conference at its last session held in Laurens, S. C., appointed a Committee on our Orphanage. The Committee made a report to the Conference, and the following was adopted by the Conference:

2. That we proceed at once to provide for said Orphanage, to be called "The Epworth Orphanage of the South Carolina Conference."

3. That we hereby constitute a Board of Managers for said Orphanage, consisting of four clergymen and three laymen, who shall have plenary powers to locate, arrange for, and establish said Orphanage on such scale as they may deem advisable, and that the following named clergymen and laymen constitute said Board: A. J. Stokes, M. M. Brabham, G. H. Waddell, J. F. Anderson, R. S. Hill, L. D. Childs and V. C. Dibble. The said Board shall complete their organization, and shall have power to fill all vacancies that may occur in the interim of the Conference.

4. That every preacher be required to present the claims of the Epworth Orphanage to each congregation, and take a collection for the use of the Orphanage Commission during the coming year.

Under this commission we proceeded to organize by the election of A. J. Stokes, President of the Board of Managers, G. H. Waddell, Secretary, and R. S. Hill, Treasurer.

A vacancy occurred by the resignation of V. C. Dibble, and R. L. Coleman was elected to fill said vacancy.

The Board, through its representatives, went to work at once to execute the will of the Conference as expressed in the Commission, and now we make our report.

The good and gracious Lord has opened our way and given us the most gratifying success.

We have secured titles to lands about one mile east of the city of Columbia, S. C., said to contain about 115 acres, beautiful for situation and altogether suited to our purposes.

The land is very fertile and every acre is available for our needs. The part that was under cultivation the current year produced from 40 to 45 bushels of corn per acre.

There is an orchard, and the soil is well adapted to grapes, peaches, and other fruits.

The building site is elevated above the adjacent city, well embowered with choice trees.

There is a deep well of water with exhaustless streams flowing into it.

There was a large unfinished brick building (14 rooms) of recent erection on the building site. We found this, in arrangement, about as well adapted to our needs as if we had had the planning of it. This building has been completed according to the original plan and beautified, and now it is one of the handsomest buildings in the vicinity of Columbia. There is also a large wooden building somewhat remote from the brick one just spoken of, which needs repairs. We have the promise of an electric car line to our door. This will put us in five minutes ride of the thoroughfares of the city, and the telephone will place us in speaking distance of all parts of the city. Electric lights can be furnished with but little additional cost. Cheap water works can be supplied.

The topography of the site is favorable to satisfactory sewerage.

Our property is estimated as worth $15,000. The titles are perfect and guaranteed, according to the opinion of two of the best lawyers in the State.

We recommend that the Board of Managers be increased to fifteen (15), consisting of eight (8) clergymen and seven (7) laymen; that the said Board be elected quadrennially dating from the last annual Conference.

We recommend that the following be elected to fill up the Board to 15 members: Clergymen—T. G. Herbert, T. C. Odell, J. S. Beasley, W. H. Hodges. Laymen—W. J. Murray, C. A. Wood, H. C. Straus, A. C. Dibble.

It shall be the duty of the Board to elect the Superintendent and necessary officers.

The said Board of Managers shall act as Trustees and shall order and transact all the business of the Orphanage, and shall foster and protect all its interests and rights.

We are advanced in our work sufficiently to say as soon as the officers are elected we shall be ready to proceed to put the institution into active operation.

We must not close our report without commending most gratefully the noble efforts made to secure the location of the Orphanage by the excellent and liberal people of Gray Court, Spartanburg, Union, Rock Hill, Manning, and Columbia. Our needs are still great for future work and supplies. We have received up to December 1st, $2,151.64, all of which is needed to fulfill present contracts.

The Lord has wonderfully blessed us and we praise him for all that is past and trust him for all that is to come.

Let the Conference devise liberal things for the poor and needy orphans. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Committee to whom was referred the District Conference Journals would report:

That they have carefully examined them and find the Journals of Marion, Cokesbury, Florence, Sumter, Columbia and Orangeburg Districts models of neatness, showing painstaking work.

The Record of Greenville District shows haste in transcribing, and careless wording of sentences.

The Charleston District Journal would have been neater in appearance if the underlining had been more carefully done, and with different colored ink.

Spartanburg District Journal is marred in appearance by too much crowding.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

It is wholly unnecessary for your Committee to emphasize the paramount importance of the subject before us. Its importance is equaled only by the gravity of the issues involved, and no one who rightly reads the signs of the times can fail to realize the magnitude of the dangers resulting from intemperance.

In all ages of the world, and among all the nations of the earth, intemperance has always held a most important place in the potent forces in the disorganization of nations, the overthrow of kingdoms, and the destruction of empires.

Its blighting effects have not been felt by pagan nations alone, but the chosen of God themselves have often surrendered their crowns and have submissively bowed to the scepter of this mighty king.

Intemperance is not only universal in that it affects all nations, but in its effects upon the individual as well. It affects him in body, mind, and spirit. It injures him in body, in that it burns out the tissues and thus renders the body the easy prey of destructive disease. It injures him in mind in blunting the perceptive powers, thus disqualifying him for properly comprehending the acute distinctions between right and wrong, truth and falsehood, righteousness and iniquity.

It injures him in soul by lowering his moral tone, degrading his higher nature, and weakening his spiritual power, thus rendering him wholly incapacitated to live in the region of the eternal or to hold converse with the divine.

We are gratified to note the wonderful improvement in public opinion in regard to this question, and we are plausibly proud of the fact that history warrants us in claiming that Methodism has led the temperance forces of the world. But the conflict waxes fiercer and fiercer, and we must soon have a glorious victory or a shameful defeat. Which shall it be? The State, the school and the Church are marshalling their forces for a mighty struggle.

Realizing the imperative necessity of an aggressive campaign, we make the following recommendations:

1. That the subject of temperance be more systematically taught in our Sunday Schools, and that we approve the use of those texts books in our secular schools, which give scientific temperance instruction.

2. That we urge our preachers to preach oftener on the subject.

3. That we, so far as practicable, organize our Churches for systematic temperance work along the Gospel Temperance Union or similar lines.

Respectfully submitted.

JNO. O. WILLSON,
EDITOR SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

REPORT OF PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

The Publishing Committee of The Southern Christian Advocate beg leave to submit the following report:

Our paper has made its weekly visits to the homes of our people during the year, and, we are glad to say, still receives the warm welcome accorded it in the past. The editor, Rev. Jno. O. Willson, besides giving satisfaction in editorial work, has been faithful and true in doing what he could to advance the interests of the paper.

Col. Hoyt, the publisher, though laboring under difficulties at the outset, has, to a large extent, overcome them, and now assures the Committee that needed improvements will be made.

The royalty account has been audited and found correct.

The circulation, though good, is not what it should be when we consider the merits of the paper and our large constituency.

As an inducement to increase the circulation, we mention the fact that one feature of the contract provides that when the subscription list shall have reached six thousand that subscribers shall receive the paper at $1.50 per annum.

As a Committee, we urge the brethren of this Conference to make diligent effort to put The Advocate into every Methodist home within our bounds.

L. F. BEATY,
M. M. BRABHAM.

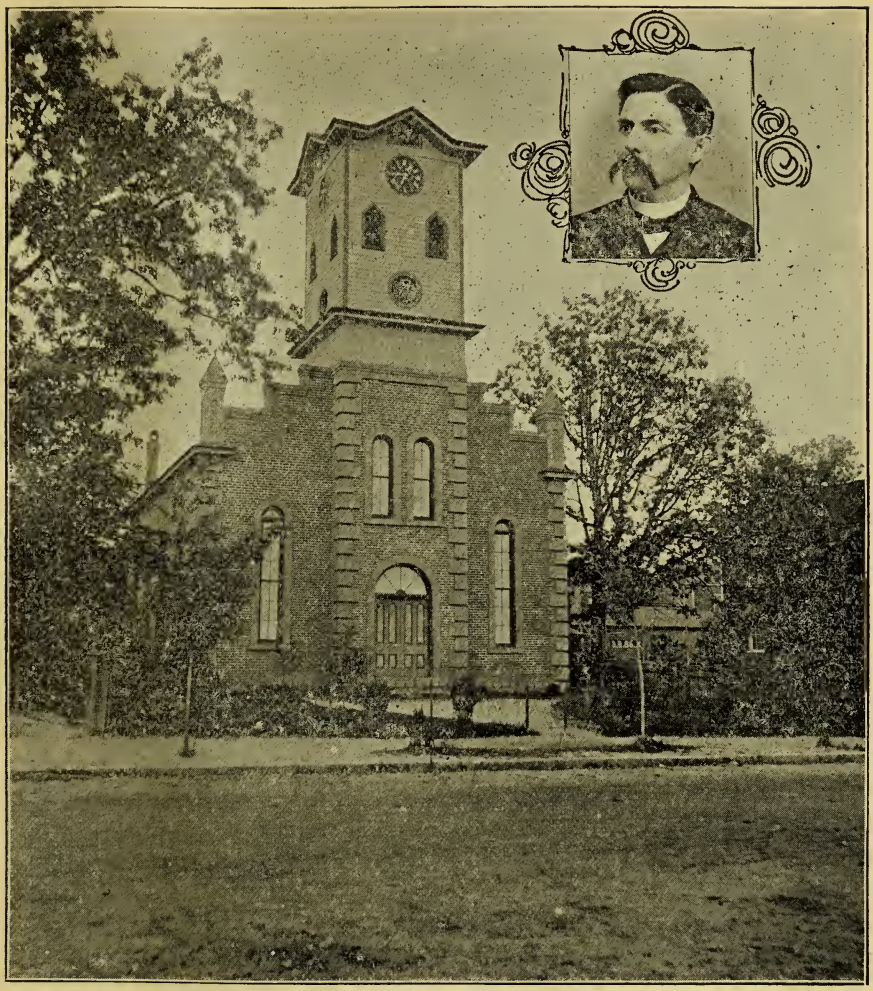
REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Domestic Missionary of the Church of Christ has very rarely been accorded the honor due him; neither has he, generally speaking had the financial support which the Church should have granted him. The true moral heroism which he has frequently exercised in overcoming difficulties, in supporting those who have been dependent on him, and in rendering service, not always appreciated, would in many instances put to shame the thrilling experiences of those who have been called to labor in foreign fields. Doubtless many severe trials have been experienced by the Domestic Missionary during the year through which we have just passed, witnessed alone by God and the Angels, and recorded nowhere else but in the Book of Remembrance which God is writing. In the midst of our noble and praiseworthy efforts to carry the Gospel to the heathen nations of the earth, let us not forget our duty to those consecrated men who labor in the waste-places of our beloved Zion. Christ, our Master, first of all "came to his own." His ministerial life is but one grand, thrilling record of an earnest, consecrated Domestic Missionary. The Domestic Missionary, therefore, above all other classes of ministers, is doing the work which Christ did when He was in the world. May God hasten the day when we shall not only put forth grander efforts to send the Gospel into the "regions beyond," but also give the devoted Home Missionary more sympathy and a more liberal financial support relative to the work to which he is called.

The past year has been one full of severe trials to the Domestic Missionaries of our Conference.

CUMBERLAND MISSION, in the city of Charleston, its pastor reports, has passed through a year of extraordinary and peculiar trial, yet in the midst of great obstacles and difficulties much good has been accomplished.



St. John's Church, Rock Hill, S. C., H. B. Browne, Pastor.

"The poor have the Gospel preached unto them," and good results have attended the preaching of the Word, souls have been born into the Kingdom of God, and hopeful indications of progress are evident.

PORT ROYAL presents a wide-open door for the accomplishment of a great work. The past year has been one of very great progress along all lines. The development of this Mission vindicates the wisdom of the Board in its establishment.

PARKSVILLE, in the Cokesbury District, has closed a very successful year. The membership of the Church within its bounds has been increased twenty per cent. during the past ecclesiastical year; and it is evident from present indications that this Mission will, in the very near future, become a self-supporting charge.

KINARD'S has made very little progress. The charge is weak financially and numerically, but the possibilities of the Mission demand its continuance.

MT. CARMEL is developing gradually. The pastor's labors during the past year have been blessed with very considerable success.

NEWBERRY CITY MISSION, which was established by the Board at the last session of the Conference, makes a most excellent showing. About seventeen hundred souls are dependent for the Gospel on this Mission. Its possibilities are very great, and the outlook is exceedingly bright and encouraging.

SALTER'S, in the Florence District, has never passed through a year in which there have been greater indications of progress. The section in which it is located is developing materially, and it is but a question of time when the Mission will become a self-supporting charge.

GREEN STREET AND BROOKLAND is on a safer basis than it has ever been. The Sunday Schools under the supervision of this Mission have increased during the past year, in attendance, about three hundred per cent. The pastor has succeeded in building an excellent and comfortable parsonage. The indications, in every way, point to success. The sharp competition in this field is evidence of its great importance as missionary ground.

AIKEN is conceded to be a very important Mission. Great possibilities are involved in this charge. A most excellent year's work has been accomplished by its pastor, and there is progress along all lines.

BETHEL AND DUNCAN has made considerable progress. There have been during the past year quite a number of accessions to the Church. The pastor has overcome many difficulties incident to the work, and the condition of this charge, spiritually and materially, is hopeful and encouraging.

The SUMTER CITY MISSION is among the most hopeful of all our Domestic Missions. Valuable property has been secured, the membership has been doubled during the past year, and the work is in a healthful state of development. A larger house of worship is sadly needed to accommodate the growing demands of the work.

LOWER CLARENDON was established at the last session of our Conference. It is historic ground relative to Methodism in this State, but owing to adverse fortunes it has become one of the waste-places of our Zion. During the past year some property has been redeemed from the hands of intruders, and the Mission bids fair to become a success.

PEE DEE MISSION bids fair to become a very important field. A large factory populace will soon be dependent on this work for the Gospel. It has made some progress during the past year. The name of this Mission was changed to McColls.

UPPER EDISTO embraces a section of country through which two important lines of railroads pass. The country is developing materially, therefore this field is more hopeful than ever. During the past year there have been forty-eight accessions to the Church, and the outlook in every way is full of promise. The Board established one new Mission in the city of Anderson, to be known as the Anderson City Mission.

Besides these Missions, forty-eight weak charges have been assisted by the Board. We are glad to be able to report general prosperity and progress relative to all our Domestic Missionary work.

A. J. CAUTHEN, President.
J. W. DANIEL, Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED IN 1895.

ROBERT NEWTON WELLS, D. D.

Among those called to eternal rest during the Conference year was that prince of preachers, Robert Newton Wells. In the prime of life he was stricken with mortal disease, and after months of suffering, fell on sleep in the city of Greenville, December 11th, 1895.

He was the son of Mr. R. F. and Mrs. M. A. Wells, who were earnest and consistent Christians, and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. They lived in Clarendon county, near Summerton, S. C., where the subject of this sketch was born on July 13th, 1847. Their home was daily consecrated by the worship of God, and in it they exhibited the genuineness of their faith and realized the benefits of the life hid with Christ in God.

Reared in such a home, their son was early impressed with the value of his soul, the supremacy of his duty to God, and was an obedient child, reverencing and loving his parents. He attended the academy at Summerton, and was under the tuition of the Rev. J. W. Wightman and the Rev. Wm. Thomas, both godly and accomplished teachers. Like many others he left school and entered the Confederate army to render his service in defense of Southern rights. After the war, he studied for a time in Wofford College and completed his course at the South Carolina University, from which he graduated June 29th, 1867.

During a protracted meeting, conducted by the Rev. J. B. Campbell, in 1869, he was deeply convicted and soundly converted. From that day to the end he never doubted his interest in Christ and Christ's interest in him. Soon after conversion he was called to preach. His ambition had been to follow the profession of law, but there was not a moment's hesitation. He obeyed the call. Receiving license to exhort, he assisted his pastor and regularly filled appointments on the circuit. In the fall of 1869 he was licensed to preach, and in December, 1870 he was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference.

His first appointment was to Fairfield Circuit, where he served as junior preacher, Rev. J. L. Shuford being preacher in charge. In 1872 he was sent to Laurens Circuit as junior preacher under the Rev. M. A. McKibben. He had the good fortune which every young preacher should covet of being guided in the first years of his ministry by the experience and wisdom of a senior preacher. He was appointed to Clinton Circuit in 1873, to Cokesbury in 1874, to Marion Circuit in 1875. Even before entering the Conference, he preached well, and every year his improvement became more and more marked. At the end of his appointment to Marion Circuit he was appointed to Sumter Station. His success was such that, although he was surprised, others were not, when the Bishop appointed him to Trinity Station, Charleston. Here he remained three years. From Trinity he was sent to Washington Street, Columbia, served with that charge for two years. In 1883 he was sent to Greenwood Circuit. The year after, he was sent to Bethel, Charleston, where he remained four years. At the end of this pastorate, he was again appointed to Trinity Station and served three years more. In 1890 Bishop Duncan sent him to the Charleston District. In all these charges, Circuit, Station and District, he was eminently successful. Early in the fourth year of his work on the Charleston District, the disease, which finally proved fatal, made its appearance. His zeal and devotion became more and more apparent as sickness and suffering began to destroy his strength. It was with reluctance that he obeyed the commands of the physician and sought the renewing of his health by a period of rest. Returning, he resumed his work. What proved to be his last sermons were preached at Beaufort. His delighted listeners little knew, as they were moved by the power of the Word, that they were hearing the last utterances of one of the most gifted men who ever occupied a South Carolina pulpit. At the end of the year, still hoping that his strength would return, he desired to be continued on the effective list, and was appointed to Buncombe Street Station, with his son, the Rev. Preston Bookter Wells, as assistant. He went to his appointment Dec. 6th, 1894. The end was nearer than he or any one else dreamed. In less than a week the eloquent tongue was still, the loyal and loving heart was cold in death.

On the 6th day of June, 1871, he married Miss Carrie C. Shedd, who was ever after his devoted helpmate, and who followed him to the rest of God's people on Dec. 4th, 1895. No woman had a more loving husband; no husband a more devoted wife. Thirteen children were born to this union, seven of whom were transplanted from earth to heaven in the years of infancy. He was tenderest father; his children were most affectionate.

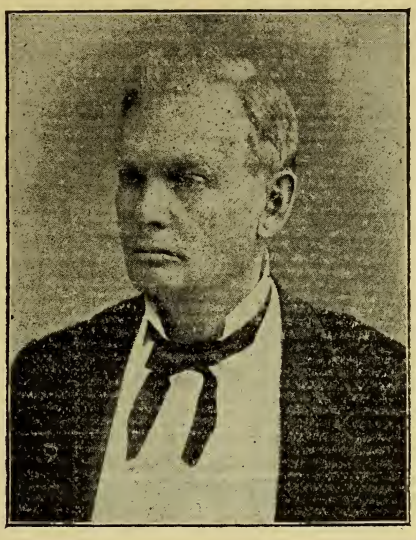
During his second pastorate at Trinity the South Carolina University conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity; and those who knew him, saint and sinner, said it was but simple recognition of his merit.

In 1893 he was elected on first ballot to the General Conference of 1894 by a most flattering vote. Although disease had fastened upon him, he was in his place at Memphis and rendered excellent service. A further testimonial of the confidence of his friends was his election to the Presidency of the Conference Historical Society in 1893.

Bro. Wells was a gifted man and will long be remembered for the charm of his oratory. His word not only charmed, but it won sinners and strengthened saints. He was gifted in the social circle, and in city and country men and women will speak for many a day of the hours when their homes were blessed by the presence of this genial and gentle friend of human kind. In his own home as husband, father, brother, none could surpass his tenderness and devotion. In the outer circle of friends his faithfulness will not be forgotten. He knew how to be a friend and was a friend to many. As a man among men, his heart was large enough to find interest in every human being. As a Christian, he loved God.

But let us stay our words. Tongue cannot render fitting tribute. We enshrine him in our hearts, we cherish him in our memories, and we will wait until the gates are opened for us and we find him again in the Paradise of God.

JNO. O. WILLSON.



R. P. FRANKS.

Rev. Robert Potter Franks, son of Joshua and Prudence Franks, was born in Laurens County, S. C., Sept. 19th, 1818. His mother was a sister of Rev. Ira L. Potter and aunt of the late Rev. W. H. Potter, D. D. His father and mother were pious, and at the time of his earliest recollection he had religious impressions. He was converted and joined the Church in his eleventh year—was licensed to exhort Oct. 29th, 1842—was licensed to preach Sept. 8th, 1843, his license being signed by Rev. Nicholas Talley. He was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference February, 1844—was ordained Deacon and Elder by Bishop Andrew. His first charge was the Barnwell Circuit, to which he was appointed junior preacher. His last charge was the Edgefield Circuit. But forty-five years of continuous toil and arduous service had elapsed, and the youthful, hopeful helper had become the long tried leader and scar-worn veteran, who, on account of increasing infirmities, voluntarily retired to the superanuated relation, in which relation he cheerfully awaited his translation, which occurred at his home at Lowndesville, S. C., at 9 o'clock p. m., January 25, 1895. He passed suddenly away without being confined to bed with sickness or wasting disease. Up to the very last he retained his cheerfulness and buoyancy of spirits, which he possessed in a marked degree. He was buried in the Cemetery at Smyrna, near Lowndesville, in which rests the dust of Rev. James Dannelly. These lives conjoined embrace most of the period covered by the history of the South Carolina Conference.

Brother Franks served four years on missions on the sea coast—to the slaves—eighteen years on circuits, twelve years on stations and twelve years on districts. For five years he was superannuated. In all these he was never unemployed, never trifflingly employed. He gave much attention to reading and study. His sermons exhibited much painstaking and were filled with strong meat. He was very familiar with the doctrines and polity of Methodism, and was an able expositor and defender of the same. He loved his Church with an ardor that amounted to a passion, and to its advancement he consecrated all his powers of mind and body without reserve and without stint. The measure of his fidelity to his Church was the giving of his whole life to its service. No labor was too great for him to undertake, no sacrifice was too costly for him to make. He loved the Church because he loved Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church, as his own personal Saviour. To him Christian service was the greatest possible joy, and, doubtless, this was the secret of his constant cheerfulness throughout his long life, and that in his old age showed no abatement. He grew old gracefully and lovingly.

In his superannuation he was busy with his pen in communications, of a most valuable character, to the Southern Christian Advocate. These articles, so rich in religious thought and edification, were helpful to a large number of Christians. His contributions will be much missed by those who were accustomed to find in them spiritual food. As he grew older, he became more mellow and seemed literally to walk with God and to drink deeply of His Spirit. He preached, as opportunity offered, until the end, and much enjoyed whatever he was able to do for God and the Church. During the last years of his life he read his Bible very much of his time and caught, more than ever before, its hidden meaning.

During his ministerial life he was stationed at Sumter, Newberry, Yorkville, Columbia and other responsible points. In the Presiding Eldership he excelled. Here there was full scope for the exercise of that rare good judgment in the leadership of men and management of affairs for which he was so remarkable. He served the Shelby, Spartanburg and Greenville Districts—full terms in every case—with great acceptability to the preachers and people and with marked efficiency to the Church.

He was a steadfast friend to our schools and colleges and served for many years as a Trustee of the Columbia Female College, where his wise counsel was very valuable. He ever took an intelligent interest in Christian education. He graduated his son at Wofford College and his daughter at the Columbia Female College.

He was very happy in both his marriages—was married first to Mrs. Jane B. Satterwhite, of McDowell County, N. C., 13th of November, 1851. His second marriage was with Miss Eliza Murphy Avery, Dec. 9, 1856, in Burke County, N. C. In this marriage he became allied with an old historic family of New England, descendants of which moved to Virginia and North Carolina in Colonial days. His home life was most beautiful, the ideal home of a Christian minister. In it he was the recognized head, the loving, kind provident husband and father, loving wife and children much, and much loved by them in return. The beloved wife, the partner of many years of his itinerant life, and his children, so precious to him, Jas. B. Franks and Mrs. Mary Perkins, of Morganton, N. C., survive him to receive the sympathy of the Church he served so long and so well.

He was most devoted and affectionate to his brethren of the Conference. His wise and sympathetic interest in his younger brethren of the ministry was very helpful to them. He was present at every session of the Conference during his fifty-one years of membership in it, and always took a lively and intelligent interest in all its proceedings.

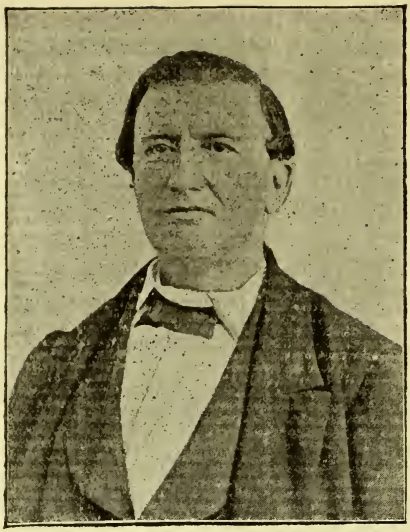
As a man, he was remarkable for wise, clear judgment as to men and measures. He weighed all questions as to duty well and calmly, and his decisions, when once reached, were firmly maintained. He was noted for integrfty and force of character. He had broad charity for all who differed with him in opinion.

As a preacher he was clear, spiritual and forceful. His preaching was good to the use of edifying. He brought out of his treasury things both new and old.

As a Christian, he was well grounded in the eternal verities of faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Savior of all men. He had the witness of the Spirit that he was accepted of the Father, because of living saving faith in Christ Jesus, the Son, and was ever ready to give a reason of the hope that was in him. He had an experience of the deep, hidden things of God. He was far removed from all cant, but was sincere and transparent in all his professions and spiritual attainments.

His last days, as were all his days, were contented and happy, filled with service, in greater or smaller things, for his family, for his brethren, for his Church. His communion with God was sweet and abiding, and his peace flowed as a river. He became as a sheaf of ripe grain ready for the garner. He has joined the company gone before and has, doubtless, entered upon a large reward "in the Christian's home in glory."

J. WALTER DICKSON.



DAVID W. SEALE.

David W. Seale fails at this session of the Conference to answer to roll-call. Even after he became a superannuate, thirteen years sgo, he continually attended the sessions of his beloved Conference, and would evince the liveliest interest in the business and services of the Conference. He was an old-time Methodist preacher, and coming into the body more than three score years ago, the beginning of his ministry antedated the educational work of the Conference, and the recent progressive movement along the line of Missions and Church Extension and the like. About such matters he had much less concern than the more evangelistic work of the Church, when power from Heaven came down upon preacher and congregation at the average service of the Sanctuary. I am told by prominent members of this body that in his early prime revival fire followed him from one appointment to another in the two Carolinas. It is quite likely that he traveled more circuits, extending from the Piedmont to the sea, than any man who has ever belonged to the South Carolina Conference. Thousands were brought to God in repentance and faith through his consecrated labors, and thousands lifted into higher experiences of the Divine life. He had profound convictions as to the doctrine and experience of the Witness of the Spirit. He believed and knew, and gave no uncertain testimony as to his faith in God and knowledge of Him. His preaching was the ready and effusive utterance of a soul chock-full of the love of God shed abroad in the heart by the Holy Ghost. His standard of the preacher's power was in the preacher's sanctified pathos; and after this standard he aspired in his own experience. He loved Methodism as to her doctrines, her polity, her traditions of the heroic and secure past, and her method of the pulpit and altar work. He feared what he considered the innovations and experiments of these late days, and lived too much in the past to get all he might out of the present. He was a good man full of the Holy Ghost and of faith. He loved God and his brethren. He joined the South Carolina Conference in 1835; served on circuits forty-five years; on Missions, two years. On April 6, 1895, he died.

"How blest the righteous when he dies."

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WIVES WHO DIED IN 1895.

MRS. AMELIA MARTHA BROWNE.

MRS. D. J. McMILLAN.

MRS. LAURA WILLIAMS.

MRS. CARRIE C. WELLS.

The wives of itinerant preachers share the labors and burdens of life with their husbands. Many a minister might yield to discouragement, but for the encouraging words and ready assistance of the gentle women God gives to them as helpmates. This work for Christ is out of the sight of the eyes of men. Only He who knows all things can see and reward these faithful women as they deserve. But while it is not our privilege fully to know and adequately to recognize their worth and works, we can and do honor them living and mourn them when they depart.

During the Conference year two wives of itinerant preachers, and two widows of deceased itinerant preachers have fallen on sleep:—

(1) Mrs. Amelia M. Browne, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Henry Bass, and wife of Rev. Sidi H. Browne, died in Columbia, S. C., May 10th, 1895. For nearly forty-five years she was the helpmeet of her husband, the friend of all good people, the lover of Christians and of Christ. Her record is on high.

(2) Mrs. D. J. McMillan, wife of the late Rev. D. J. McMillan, died in Lake City, Aug. 14th, 1895. During the life of her husband she was a great help and comfort to him and rendered many a service to others in their search after Christ and in the sorrows incident to life. After his death she continued her gentle ministrations until called to the rest of the people of God. Her memorial is with the Lord.

(3) Mrs. Laura King Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William King, and wife of Rev. W. W. Williams, died at Latta, S. C., Aug. 31st, 1895. She shared the toils and trials of her husband, made his home bright and beautiful, and carried sunshine to many another home and heart, until the summons called her to the reward of the pure and good. Her lasting tribute is in the City of the King.

(4) Mrs. Carrie Christian Wells, daughter of the late Col. and Mrs. J. M. Shedd, and widow of the late Rev. R. N. Wells, D.D., died in Charleston, S. C., Dec. 4th, 1895. Devoted and true, she aided her husband, as well as her son, in the great work committed to them, supported and sustained the one, counseled and cheered the other, until the Master said "it is enough." Less than a year ago her husband died; now she has gone to meet him. Her reward is with Christ.

TEN GOOD REASONS

FOR PATRONIZING THE

Williamston Female College.

1. It is situated in the quiet village of Williamston, in the beautiful Piedmont region of South Carolina, where clear, cool, sparkling water abounds, and the pure, healthful air has no taint of malaria. The celebrated Williamston Chalybeate Spring, about 200 yards from the College, is easily accessible every day.

2. Its pupils are treated as members of the College family, in sickness and in health. Teachers and pupils all sit at the same table, and enjoy the same home comforts and fare.

3. The number of boarding pupils is necessarily limited to about fifty. This fact gives each pupil assurance of that personal, maternal oversight and care which every young lady so greatly needs, and which she can not possibly have in a very large institution, where the individual is unavoidably merged in the mass.

4. It possesses and uses excellent reference and circulating libraries, a well-equipped chemical laboratory, and carefully selected physical apparatus.

5. It does not burden its pupils with a number of difficult studies at once. In connection with composition, spelling, reading, &c., each pupil has only one principal study at a time. To this she gives almost exclusive attention for five weeks. She then drops it and takes up another in the same way. This plan tends to prevent the dissipation of thought which always results when one undertakes to master several difficult subjects at a time.

6. It does not put its pupils on the college stage on any public occasion. This feature secures an incalculable saving of time, money, and modesty; and it is especially serviceable to studious pupils, in that it tends to keep away young ladies who think more of display than of the cultivation of their powers.

7. Graduation may occur at any season of the College year, whenever the candidate has finished the required course of study. The loss of a short time, for sickness or other cause, puts off one's graduation only a few weeks, instead of a whole year, as on the annual plan.

8. From the above facts it is manifestly possible to enforce a reasonably high standard of scholarship with less friction and difficulty than in an Institution conducted in the usual way. How faithfully this has been done may be judged somewhat from the fact that, during the twenty-four years of the history of the College, it has turned out only ninety-two graduates, an average of not quite four a year. All these are what are called full graduates. We have no others.

9. A new pupil entering, or a former pupil returning after a temporary absence, is always furnished with appropriate work at the beginning of any one of the eight sections into which the school year is divided. The whole school is re-classified every section; and a new pupil begins the new section's work as conveniently as if she had come at the opening of the session.

10. Though not under the control of any Christian denomination, it is conducted on Christian principles; and its history has been frequently marked by signal displays of divine power in the conversion of many souls, Three of its pupils are now engaged in foreign missionary labors; and two others are making special preparation for similar work.
